

Stephen Boerner <stephen.boerner@gmail.com>

Bemer v. Stephen Boerner - Docket No. 2024-007234

3 messages

stephen.boerner@gmail.com <stephen.boerner@gmail.com>
To: cmirabile@wglaw.com, lbeshenich@wglaw.com

Thu, May 29, 2025 at 6:37 PM

Re: Bemer v. Stephen Boerner
Delaware County Court of Common Pleas
Docket No. 2024-007234

Dear Attorney Mirabile,

On May 21, 2025, you received a copy of the Praeipce to Correct Address via email, accompanied by a USPS certified mail notice. This mailing was issued on May 21, 2025. To date, USPS shows attempts, but indicates non-delivery at this time. In contrast, the same document was successfully delivered to the Delaware County Office of Judicial Support for processing.

With that stated, below is my intent for this email correspondence:

In the forthcoming days, I will issue a written documentation via email, providing essential information pertinent to accelerating this ongoing disclosure and interrogation period.

To expedite our shared timeline, I intend to send this correspondence via email exclusively. My intent is to issue comprehensive documentation to you by email no later than Midnight on Sunday, June 1, 2025.

I understandably anticipate you will want several days to plan time to review the documentation as well as issue a copy to your client for review.

Therefore, I suggest we schedule a phone conversation before that. I propose a discussion between us on Friday, June 6th, at the end of next week.

I would appreciate it if you could provide a 60-minute time window during this proposed date, based on your availability, to accommodate our discussion. I can work around your schedule for a Friday, June 6th discussion.

If this schedule does not align with you, and your client's schedule, please propose an alternative date for a 1:1 between us, ensuring a 60-minute allotted time frame.

By COB on Friday, May 30, 2025, please issue back a confirmation of receipt of this email as well as the details requested to support a mutual coordination focused on scheduling our discussion.

Thank you,

Stephen Boerner
Proceeding Pro Se
Stephen.Boerner@gmail.com
215-530-0545

Steve Boerner <stephen.boerner@gmail.com>
To: cmirabile@wglaw.com, lbeshenich@wglaw.com

Fri, May 30, 2025 at 6:15 PM

Please issue a response

[Quoted text hidden]

Steve Boerner <stephen.boerner@gmail.com>
To: cmirabile@wglaw.com, lbeshenich@wglaw.com

Wed, Jun 4, 2025 at 10:07 AM

Ms Mirabile,

I have not heard back from your office after two emails and one certified mailing.

I expected there would be at least an acknowledgment of my emails with a good faith effort to simply provide availability to speak.

Your office is opting to remain silent.

On May 21, 2025, via certified mail, I issued you a copy of the Praeceptum to Correct Address, Followed by emails to you and your paralegal on May 29th and May 30th requesting coordination to schedule and intent to issue relevant documentation with the assumption you would comply and act to move things forward accordingly.

Help me establish that there is a willing and capable party conducting themselves at a baseline of cooperation - then, I will issue referenced information designed in good faith intended to close the time-horizon on our divorce proceedings now past 300 days since inception.

Post your review, we will have already scheduled a time to speak.

You can look to my emails on May 29 and May 30 2025 for reference.

If I don't hear back today, I will call your office tomorrow, Thursday June 5, 2025 between 3 and 5 PM.

[Quoted text hidden]