5/20/24 11:57:56 AM EDT

Misread your text. I can schedule

5/20/24 11:58:33 AM EDT

Quest or labcorp? And do I provide a referral number or anything or is that all in the paperwork at home? I can check when I get back and schedule this today our clinic called me and spoke to them confirmed the psychiatry appointment on June 13 also confirmed that I am on the waiting list for in person therapy through the same clinic since I was on the spot to decide, I made sure to clarify that if I talk to you and we decide the other option is the better option and we want to do virtual therapy (then delaying the starting of the wait-list clock for in-person therapy) then i can call back today or tomorrow and change it, otherwise, that clock has started as of just now, i have Mark scheduled for next Wednesday morning at 9:45am and psychiatry is scheduled for june 13th

Love,

Please close garage door, i fed and walked lucy who has the beach runs pretty good and uber got to the house early so i rushed out the door not my favorite way to start a Monday. Ill be back early afternoon for lucy and to take my meds im dissapointed i missed taking them. Also my grey zipper wire case is under the drivers seat would you mind leaving it inside

Morris approached me on everything last night. We talked for a few hours about it all. He's truly a good friend. He has our best interest in mind.

He called me out on what i frankly needed to hear. Im so sorry for so much and its just time to get my shit together. I dont have words for how i feel. Just ready and wanting so bad to be what you need and to return to who i am. Who i see i dont like and im concerned as well

My heart and mind are just straining in every possible way to be anything besides what i am currently and the guilt i put on myself is incredible. Im spinning and folding in upon myself and the weight isnt allowing me move, like im frozen mentally stuck inside my own brain watching another version of me fail at living my life.

I dont have to be everything at once, i just have to focus on me, you, and us and go from there. The only things i love dearly are those.

Morris was the right person to call me out on many related things it was very direct.

I feel like im losing you. I want to talk until its all on the table. Its the only way to start

6/3/24 10:01:26 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you for sharing this and please please also share with mark your therapist too. I started dishwasher to make room for dishes in the sink, brought your gray cord pouch in and left back sliding door open a little for Lu in case she needs to go out. Hope you guys have a good day and don't forget it's your moms birthday

They loved it so 1-2 weeks will know and they want to move quick. Im not excited nor have fanciful this or that, but i know when people have budget and pain points i can solve and am good at. The feedback i got felt nice.

6/3/24 4:58:38 PM EDT

Paid mortgage, ordering groceries trying for delivery for today, might come tomorrow, and i called Steve the handyman and left a VM asking about washer and dryer

I also called three therapists in the Florida BC/BS network leaving them messages inquiring about marriage therapy. Ill let you know what i hear. I read on my heathcare account that we only have emergency services covered outside the state of florida.

Do you know if thats correct or not?

6/4/24 1:51:55 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Babe thank you omg I forgot about Steve and the tenants thank you so much for following up about that! Ah! I have a service I think we can get like 6 free therapy sessions but I'll look more tomorrow

6/4/24 1:52:23 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you for ordering groceries and paying mortgage really appreciate you and I'd like to know process of paying mortgage too sometime

6/4/24 1:52:56 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hmmmm re coverage I'm not sure let me look into it do you mean for MH services or any health services I think we have it as long as they're in network?

6/4/24 6:11:53 PM EDT

Our network seems to be just florida and only emergency services outside of out of state/in-network providers but that amount is purposely next to zero because in florida is so strong in providers. I see the benefits if someone is in-state the large majority of their healthcare and work just something to know about if we are visiting anywhere else outside of florida or seek coverage for a claim we need done outside of florida

6/4/24 6:16:50 PM EDT

Anyway how is work, how are you feeling

6/4/24 7:22:46 PM EDT

What does it mean in golf to "play from the tips"

6/5/24 3:24:04 PM EDT

aw i love golf questions from you

6/5/24 3:28:50 PM EDT

you know how at golf courses, for each of the 18 holes, there are mens tee boxes and women's tee boxes from where golfers start each of the 18 holes from? these are designated areas. women's tee boxes are closer to the hole you're trying to get it. one tee box and one hole for each of the 18 different holes on the course. If man, you play the men's tees from each hole, drive up, and then the women tee off. however, for men, there are normal tee boxes that are right behind the women's tee boxes, but then the difficulty goes up as courses put additional tee boxes even behind the men's tee boxes. typically 2. The furthest tee box from the hole is the tip. so the tips are playing from the hardest, furthest tee box from all 18 holes

6/5/24 3:29:00 PM EDT

you got the long version. the "I'm on the toilet version"

6/5/24 3:31:23 PM EDT

6/5/24 3:36:13 PM EDT

6/5/24 3:42:35 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hahaha omg babe thank you this is great

Im okay. Finishing something gotta do for work and then home to lucy for dinner and running. Im late getting back to her. Im upset. I have far more love for you than short term hurt feelings. Im trying to distract myself and make good you proud and turn the corner which i can only try each day. I did yoga at 10am on the beach and im gonna do it minimum 3 days a week

6/6/24 5:04:05 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you for your message and so glad you got to do yoga how was it? Thank you for trying your best today that's all I ask and I'm trying my best too. Lu will be ok.

6/6/24 7:57:50 PM EDT

Hi babe, did you order a new oven? I saw it was scheduled for Friday afternoon. I called Katie to feel out whether they wanted to renew and let her no pressure either way and she said they intend to renew as of now and dont want to move again, love the area, etc. but would confirm before the 60 day mark which is their deadline per the lease they signed

6/6/24 8:02:45 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hi! I didn't order a new oven but I know Steve will go Friday to fix the dryer. Thank you asking them about the renewal!

I have a really important call to me at 430pm today. So im just settling in with lucy she loves it here. Please take the day to not worry about us. Great day for the beach and to regroup from a long day yesterday. I have everything important under control so please dont worry and be free to relax without lucy whining or waking you up from naps on the hammock or beach. Its your day and whatever you want to do, need to do, ill be at low tide, the beach, and around town. Im okay. Lucy is cool here next to a fan and good AC and dog friends that welcomed her this morning

Can we do a convo over dinner perhaps around 730? that doesnt mean i not available to see you until then tho. Ill be home for a late lunch as i brought my breakfast here and i always love when you come visit me. But i want you to have your time and get out of the house to the beach or wherever. Melissa (+16106135939)

Hmmmmmm June rent check didnt clear bank

6/9/24 5:01:44 PM EDT

I called Luther yesterday about it because I noticed it on our statement was a clerical error on my end. I did not move the rent paid to us for Philly. Let Luther know that I would be sending June and July into checks tomorrow have checkbook and envelope with me to fill out two checks Tomorrow

6/9/24 5:01:54 PM EDT

He left me a voicemail an hour ago, but my phone has been on silent

6/9/24 5:02:26 PM EDT

Hes fine with it he said no issue

6/9/24 5:19:13 PM EDT

I just spoke to him. Returned his call. Such a nice person. Ill share details later what we discussed. All is fine. Clerical error on my end , he said no fine or late charge and we caught up. I will take 2 checks to mail drop tomorrow. I transferred enough into pnc from crypto to cover more than enough to pay final rent payments and paid off credit card to $0 so we are good there. My mistake tho just glad we have good landlord

6/9/24 5:19:26 PM EDT

I fed Lucy and just got back to Lowtide

6/9/24 5:20:04 PM EDT

Our case manager here is lovely and I asked for her help in getting the September appt moved up so we will get a call tomorrow or so just wanted to give you a heads up! Then we can get you into TGH system earlier 😊

6/10/24 12:16:31 PM EDT

Im way better. I walked lucy and then couldnt sit still. Cart had enough charge for in-town and back and i just sat down. Im scheduling golf cart repair i know whats wrong with it i just dont like the risk of electrical work its too dangerous.

I asked Mark if you could join this Wednesday at Noon after the 10am in-person follow up with Zainab in Largo. Are you up for coming with me? Its better than nothing this week and i trust him in that he wont pick a side or anything.

We have lots of medical mental health stuff on the calendar this week which im happy about. As for the call tomorrow, you are working so do you want to pick a different day. You said "we" are getting a call so just wondering if youll be with me or at work and im 100% fine either way not confirming.

6/10/24 12:57:35 PM EDT

The golf cart repair guy is meeting me today in town where the cart is parked and thinks he can fix it on site

6/10/24 1:38:01 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Great news about cart repair guy thank you so much yes I'm free to join you tomorrow and can absolutely do so. I think you'll most likely be getting a call and hopefully it's just to schedule you earlier than September

6/10/24 1:38:20 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I'm think we can prob cancel the Thursday appt
but let's play it by ear for now

6/10/24 1:38:32 PM EDT

Are you off tomorrow?

I plan to be up early to work from home so i can see you before you leave for work. A few updates to talk through as well.

Everything here is okay. Happy and safe. Lucy remembering what rain sounds like and cuddling when it thunders. I think shes wondering where he mommy be at.

Melissa (+16106135939)

Awwwwwww yes and I'm leaving now lovie see you soon!!!

6/11/24 10:28:25 AM EDT

I meant to discuss with you the idea I had of us taking a long weekend cruise. They have them during the week. I think we could schedule around your work. they are also very cheap and all inclusive. I think it would be good for us to get erin to watch Lucy and take some time to get out of Gulfport. I just wanted to plant that idea and I can book it for us after we talk about it I would love to take you on a fun trip so if you have a different idea, I'm off for that. The cruise is just to kick off the conversation.

6/11/24 10:53:20 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thanks for thinking of this babe it sounds really nice! Yes def let's talk through ideas and when we meet for finances too! Sorry I missed Sunday meeting but can meet another time too lovie let me know what's good for you!!

6/11/24 11:14:20 AM EDT

Maybe we could do it as a birthday gift to ourselves and then also do little things to open for each other like things we make personally for each other instead of buying so then we have thoughtful things and then something fun to do together

6/11/24 11:21:51 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

That's so nice yes a little birthday gift! I know we have some upcoming expenses like a flight home for you and NH and what not so totally understand if we have to do it later in the summer or can just see the pricing!! I also want to pick up some overtime to help too!

6/11/24 11:24:28 AM EDT

6/11/24 12:54:39 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank for for this update babe really appreciate it and yes I am hoping she will prescribe more tomorrow and I can pick up for you! We can ask her about the guanfacine I'm not sure how long it takes to work but also might be one that isn't a good fit if you don't think it's helping with your focus and what not

6/11/24 12:56:28 PM EDT

I read up on it and its 4-8 weeks to work. I look at it more of a Bp thing as im not optimistic it will help with focus. Id like to take my BP in the morning. I keep saying that but i really need to know and i feel like its low. I took a hydro today too. Just feeling down and its raining not sure that matters but hydro isnt really for that i think it helped tho.

6/11/24 12:58:43 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Awwwww yes babe I agree we really need to take your BP and make sure it's not getting too low aw yes take hydro if you need and the rain always makes me feel down I'm def cranky at work today!

6/11/24 1:32:44 PM EDT

I gave lucy a lunch and cracked the back door incase she needs to go outback and she always does when we are gone she loves it and it stopped raining. Fed her lunch incase the repair guy takes awhile but after yeaterday he knew what part to get to finalize the fix today

6/11/24 1:37:01 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

There were 11 dogs inside Low Tide at one time it literally felt like a dog specific destination. It was just too distracting for me and Lucy. She was hiding under my legs and then she was pushing her ball out into the middle of the floor and everyone wanted to talk to her and her which was so cute but I just ran her some more. She pooped again and now I need to get back to work.

6/11/24 8:41:25 PM EDT

6/13/24 2:19:40 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thanks!!

6/13/24 2:24:24 PM EDT

They make this so annoyingly difficult im still workin on it

6/13/24 2:25:38 PM EDT

I'm trying to add you as a independent user with your own username and password and two factor authentication so when you login the passcode goes to your phone number not mine but they don't seem to allow that and you can only have one phone number for two factor authentication, but you can have two phone numbers for SMS alerts, which are just worthless this or that texts not helpful or what you need

6/13/24 2:26:27 PM EDT

Just read i have to call or visit a branch

6/13/24 2:27:10 PM EDT

I can call now. You should be able to login under my user name and password and when i give you the texted passcode, that will get you in to everything you need

6/13/24 2:27:12 PM EDT

For now

6/13/24 2:36:57 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Sounds good no worries about setting up my own login for now and I'm out with Lu so not gonna login right now

6/13/24 2:42:46 PM EDT

I just got off the phone with PNC . To add you as authorized user to my personal checking account with PNC we have to go in person and you have to bring two forms of identification, and then you would have your own username and login to access my checking to get your username and password with your two factor authentication for the joint account, you have to enroll in online banking on the PNC website which I can do for you but you have to share the code that you get and I have to enter your Social Security number which I have saved safely and can do this for you. That way you would have a username and password of your own that can allow access to our shared account, but it will not allow you to see my personal checking account unless we go to PNC branch and add my personal checking to your account so at that point, you would have one set of credentials to login and see both accounts.

6/13/24 2:48:53 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok thank you yes I was trying to access shared account and only saw the one in LastPass so wasn't sure if it was your personal or the joint

6/13/24 2:49:13 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Either way I can try and set up my own login for the joint account! Thank you!

6/13/24 2:56:12 PM EDT

Its just me here at lowtide if you want to swing through on way home and sit with me we can do it together. Your call

I want to move out ASAP but stay in Gulfport so I can help with Lucy and will give me time to update my resume and apply to jobs back home. I found a place on furnished finders but need some of the savings in order to pay for July and August. Please let me know if this sounds doable.

6/18/24 10:34:25 AM EDT

6/19/24 12:07:01 AM EDT

6/19/24 12:07:01 AM EDT

In a moment of habit, I took a picture to share. Then, this sadness is so strong. To not send it means so much. It's our family. It's our Lu. We raised her together and we have grown with her, shes seen us every day loving each other, always seemingly nudging her self into a space we make room for - that little head getting between our knees to just get a piece of every loving moment. I cant bring myself to not send it but i took this picture hours ago. Before it, i took 5 others i couldnt bring myself to share and then the guilt that came from deleting a small gift - one sharing a moment while youre at work, the family that is so accustomer to that amazing of you coming home from work.

I've read and reread your two texts all day, drafted a half dozen responses, deleting every lucy picture you always appreciate so much,

I'm in a space of only lost sadness. I have no fight in me to contend with you. I reiterated to you my unconditional love to last night. No conditions, only love and any support or effort you need of me, i wanted you to know its okay and im always going to love you more every day. So you have it. If these are your conditions, terms are your setting to challenge my unconditional promise, then you have it, you have whatever resource we have together, without terms, without resistance, without conditions.

I replay yesterday over and over. This cloud over has existed for so long- we acknowledge it's there. We talk about it. But when we agree in the foundation of love that survives despite, we nod to its existence because we have always overcome our own selves, and any circumstance, any imperfection. You understand that cloud so intimately, far better than i do. I want so badly to face it with you.

The level of pain i see in your eyes, how it surfaces, how it speaks, it makes me lose any care for myself. I have no guard to fake. Im broken. Im losing you.

I replay the last few days, yesterday's birthday, and yesterdays conversation at the bayou over and over.

I think about how foolish I am or how dissapointing i have become to you. I keep kidding myself, falling for the existence of a love I swear exists, because it exists so strongly in me, for you, at a mutual level of love that gets challenged in every way but has only gotten stronger, making us stronger, our little family stronger. We kept proving ourselves right, and love always conquered on our behalf.

For me, despite my imperfections, your imperfections, I felt so thankful to be loved by you regardless and to reciprocate the same...to get, and to give, those small moments that are so important, that represent what carries us through anything... love we both nod to and acknowledge, in agreement, it exists...unconditional love. I know what that is, and I know how beautiful it is. And I know how fleeting it had become in you, for me.

I carry no blame or resentment for this. I've let go. I am deeply sad that I cannot understand your feelings. I am here to hear the harshest of opinions of me, my wrongdoings, and who you see as your husband in these life struggles.

I am the central point of months of my loved ones' attentions, and I see it unraveling as I'm approached from each corner within the smallest of family circles - unraveling all at the expense of me. I'm done. I'm only going to give moving forward. Love, money, help, conversations, if you want any of those and more, take it.

6/19/24 12:38:43 AM EDT

Please consider coming to therapy tomorrow at 4:45 pm with me. I will respect your request to leave you alone before and after, but please sleep on it. You don't have to talk in the session, only listen

Melissa (+16106135939)

6/19/24 10:26:23 AM EDT

I hear you. Ive listened to what little youve shared. I should abide by that. And i will.

I was kindly asked that you be left alone. So, as difficult as that is, im honoring that. I won't be coming home tonight. Or any time in the future.

Your desire to find your own place and for our money to fund two places isn't necessary if i leave. Its no longer a burden. You dont have to endure that of moving out, moving in somewhere else, then only to quickly move again back to Philly

You are focused now on just you. I wanted that. Im accepting it and getting in your way is all i am doing simply be being, and existing in the same home as you.

Since im not in your current equation or focus, there is no room in that equation for you, or i needing to know each others location. Those alerts, coming and going and having that visibility doesnt align with your ask of me. So i removed my location permission from the life360 app. Please do the same.

You have no more responsibilities to burden you. I am not kidnapping Lucy. I want that to be known. Lucy is part of the "us" equation. It cant be part of the on focusing on you equation.

Im focusing on us, that includes me, but also includes you, and that included us, all three of us. In my mind, every day in the past and every day moving forward will be consumed with that focus, and to allow you the space you kindly asked me to provide you.

The lease is paid in full now. You have that house until August 31st to use as you please. It's yours. I won't be coming back. Everything there is yours to keep, sell, or take with you. I only took what i needed to live and what lucy needed to live. Lucy is ours. She's focused on us forever. "Us" is one person to her. For me, "us" is collectively the three of us me + you + lucy. Thats the equation im focused on. With only love.

If you need to talk to me for whatever reason im going to make myself available. If you cant reach me, say my phone is off or not next to me, there only a few places ill be in that moment. So you know where to find me, you know how to reach me, you know what im doing, and you have a good idea of where i am. Im available to you, just speak up. Until then, im going to hold my word. You have the space and i hopefully less a burden with me, without us, and a place to rest and plan whats next, whats best, for you.

I texted barb. I want you to know that before i speak to her. Shes your sister and shes a great one to have. Im going to tell her what i see and feel. My concerns for you. Thank you for offering me the your blessing in doing that. I will not be calling Sherry, your dad, mary, or anyone else. I will hand over my love for you to barb as i trust her completely. You may join me at 4:45 at Marks to listen only if you want to. Im not requiring any commitment from you, especially one day later after you asked for space and shared the news that you wanted to not live in the same home as me, as us, and to do so for you. I will not leave out what my role is in this to barb, i will not present myself to be a victim. I am responsible for my role in this. But i can no longer support what you need. I have check. It was dated for yesterday but if you cash it, it will bounce. Ive sold pretty much every last investment to prepare it in an account that will be visible and available to you. Venmo has a cap in terms of how much i can send at once. If you need any amount immediately, i will venmo you as much as i can today. Our money is your money. I wont be a gatekeeper to our money if your telling me you need it for the benefit of your immediate well being

And the jeep is yours to keep indefinitely. Whether you drive it home to philly, or leave it wherever, you can consider it yours. If i have to transfer the title to you so you can register it in your name, i will draft up a bill of sale and label it a gift so you dont incur PA sales tax and you can then register/insure in your name

6/19/24 2:50:37 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I won't be joining you for your therapy appointment but please return home and stay/sleep here

Marriage counseling, June 2024.pdf

6/19/24 4:30:21 PM EDT

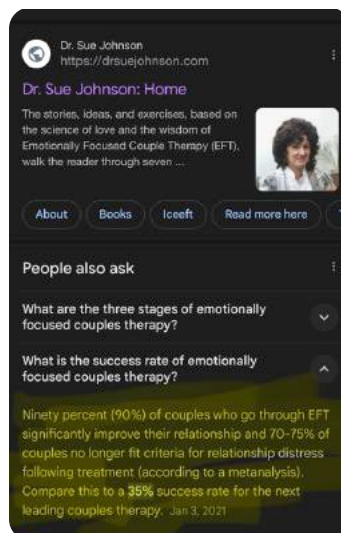

Would you want me to drop Lucy off? I am leaving downtown Gulfport now. John offered to watch her at Low Tide if I don't hear from you or you don't want that I'm attaching a document. I am in the middle of working through and add to, but this is a PDF snapshot of where I am with my search for marriage counseling, and all my notes.

6/19/24 8:16:49 PM EDT

6/19/24 8:16:49 PM EDT

6/19/24 8:16:49 PM EDT

I spoke to Letha Miller. The woman on the first page of the document i sent earlier. The one i hoped would call me back.

Letha is in-network for us and is only an 8 minute drive

she practices EFT - which stands for Emotionally Focused Therapy.

says "couples that go through EFT have a 90 percent success rate, 75 percent no longer need treatment, compared to a 35% success rate for the next leading couples therapy." EFT was started by a woman named Dr. Sue Johnson, if you want to learn more.

I only spoke to Letha Miller for 15 minutes. She offered you the same, so we are coming into the same environment together.

I booked the appointment for Thursday, June 27th at 3pm. If that overlaps with your flight to the wedding, she said Tuesday, June 25th at 11am am also available. I will do either one.

6/19/24 8:22:07 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Don't want to pressure you but the e other night you mentioned flying home this upcoming weekend. I want to help you with whatever you think is best whether it's flying home or to visit a friend or bringing someone out. Just want you to feel supported so let me know and I can help. Love you!!

6/23/24 2:55:33 PM EDT

Its on my list for today. My parents seem busy today so i said id call them mid week and just want some time to process before speaking but i know already they will be in bethlehem so its no issue me buying the tickets. They got a text from me today just so they know im alive and dont worry or anything and id prefer to address all the heavy stuff in person when im home face to face as things inevitably got lost in translation and perspective lost when everything is text messages and voicemails

6/23/24 2:59:09 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Yes no pressure and I understand wanting to process just wanted to offer my support. And last night you said it's because of you that my relationship with them is "tarnished" but I want you to know it's not tarnished and it's not because of you, they are responsible for their own actions and choices ok!! Love you babe

6/23/24 3:15:06 PM EDT

Love you too. This has given me so much to think about. Youve heard me mention that ive been writing a lot more lately. Would you be open to me sharing my writings on this topic? Specifically, the laws that govern the universe and how they interweave themselves into daily decision making, accountability as we define it, decision making both right from wrong, and how all this relates to Newton's laws of motion

6/23/24 3:16:36 PM EDT

Its not to create any superficial positioning. Just raw, organic writing from the perspective of now, today, fluid, and admittedly flawed in ignorance

6/23/24 3:18:31 PM EDT

In fact, its the opposite of positioning for anything we have going on, as i give myself permission to disagree tomorrow with what i write today. It examines me first before anyone

6/23/24 3:31:27 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Yes absolutely can share thank you!

6/23/24 3:35:47 PM EDT

Ok i will in time. Soon. Just think i can express myself better this way as i never get it right or say what i intend until i realize some perspective after the fact

6/23/24 3:37:08 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I understand! Same for me too sometimes I can express better with writing

6/23/24 5:16:46 PM EDT

6/24/24 11:56:39 AM EDT

Babe,

Good news, bad news. Bad news. The golf cart didn't make it out of the driveway today. I fixed the wiring behind the dash once on my own, but it's dangerous. That came loose again. Gary is coming by around 3pm today, thankfully. He's such a nice guy, and I paid him yesterday by dropping off a check at the 49th St. Studio, where his wife works.

Anyway, no other "bad news"

And now the good news

John picked me up today, and I still got Lucy out, but I asked him if he'd stay the weekend, and he said absolutely.

So I'm glad I didn't book the flight or tell my parents I was coming home. This is a nice compromise. John said hes happy to talk to you on the side ahead of time and im okay sith that and encourage it

6/24/24 1:03:46 PM EDT

Also, let me know when youre ready to Share a code.

I have to send a code from Google to your phone number and code so i can get in the joint gmail account on my phone

6/24/24 1:40:16 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Oh no the golf cart! Yes let me know how it goes when Gary takes a look at it. Yes thank you for allowing John to stay this weekend

6/24/24 1:40:22 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I can get a code now love

6/24/24 10:15:05 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Tomorrow what do you wanna do love! Fort desoto? Lunch or dinner in town?

6/24/24 10:21:44 PM EDT

. John scheduled this meeting on the only day he could land it so unfortunately its tomorrow but we are looking forward to it its a good opprtunity for real contract work but never a sure thing obvi. We are taking johns car so no issue there so thats easy.

Its an hour north and starts at 11:30am until 12:30pm and back by 2-3 at latest then just house keeping work before illl break off around 4 most likely.

But as I'm typing this, I have an idea

Since the meeting is just 10 miles north east of Clearwater downtown and Clearwater Beach what if you met us somewhere easy for John to drop me off and I hop in the car with you and we explore Clearwater and go check out a few places that people keep recommending like a place called the edge or something like that and then also we could take a drive-through downtown Clearwater and stare at Scientologists before or after an early picnic dinner with Lucy and or grab a quick bite to eat somewhere that catches our eye where dogs are welcome and without really any solid plans or places in mind just exploring an area we have always wanted to go

6/24/24 10:35:11 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Nice babe that sounds fun! I could meet you up there with Lucy in the afternoon and we could explore

6/24/24 11:39:07 PM EDT

That's my birthday wish. Nothing else

6/24/24 11:39:31 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

The leftovers are delish!!!

6/26/24 5:39:18 PM EDT

Babe, just a heads up and something to be careful about when you are driving the golf cart. The gas pedal gets stuck all the way down and even if you press the break, the gas pedal is still down so the throttle is remaining on high and the brakes will slow it, but Could all of a sudden send the cart forward when you don't know it's stuck if that makes sense

6/26/24 5:39:44 PM EDT

And these came!

6/26/24 5:40:01 PM EDT

6/26/24 5:52:45 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

OMG why is our cart on the fritz!! Thank you for heads up! Yay look at these packages I hope the one I was looking for arrived!!

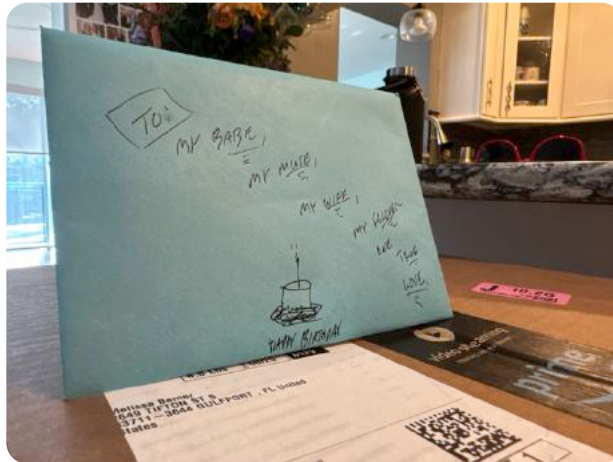

6/26/24 5:52:54 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

1 more hour I can't believe it!! Just like the old days!

6/26/24 5:59:24 PM EDT

6/26/24 6:06:14 PM EDT

This is here for when you come home on top of your boxes. I wanted to give it to you on the night of your birthday and meant to exchange it with you last night when you gave me such beautiful and thoughtful gifts. When you arrive home tonight please read it

On another note, I had to cancel my in-home meeting with our friend Walt. I am feeling better about that considering he said his brother's flight was delayed, causing uncertainty on his end, but I had to cancel regardless.

Since our meeting went so well yesterday, John and I share the responsibility of articulating everything into a professional proposal, coupled with contractual agreements, a company like this would expect for us to have

Fortunately, I play a very good lawyer on TV and know how to complete all of this work

But I have to delegate to John only what he can handle, and the bulk falls on me

This is fine and great but we won't be done by 7:30 when you return

Please read the card I wrote for you and please consider coming to Low Tide with Lucy so I can be with you both and buy you a kratom taking time together with John to thank you both for who you are in my life and acknowledging that a new year has started for the both of us

I would understand if you were very tired, but it would mean the world to me and would help me with the focus. I need before you arrive and after you leave.

I am out with Lucy now, and she is fed and soon to be well run

But she would love a moment to come downtown and say hi to her new friends and Low Tide

6/26/24 6:39:38 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thanks love yes let me pop home and shower and check in with you then!!

6/26/24 8:36:59 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Babe!! Thank you for the card and for your words, love you! How are you doing? Should Lu and I come to the beach by the volley ball courts and you can meet us for some playing!!

6/26/24 8:45:20 PM EDT

It was so nice to kiss you last night when I got home and then this morning, but I want more kisses. It's been a hectic couple days, but the guy that fires me up again so thats all good energy but still not 100 percent back. These motions and pressure are ideal for me though. Im transitioning back to me professionally so shortly ill be ready for a role somewhere and feel good about myself in the moment i return to that demand of work life balance. I was frustrated leavjng this am i apologize and left a little mess. I had a tech issue incouldnt get past last night and just shut down and turned off my systems and got sleep. Enough to have a great day and to be 100 percent by 3pm. We may have a meeting at 12:30 back at the medical clinic if they ask us we want to take that. Have to. But i have a hard hard hard stop at 2pm i have to be out the door its 30 minutes back to Gulfport. If im back at 2:30pm ill get john to take me to our house. If its after that ill meet you at the therapy office

6/27/24 10:43:34 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Are you coming home?

6/27/24 10:44:50 AM EDT

No, I just needed a break and my blood sugar was dropping

6/27/24 10:45:13 AM EDT

But if you happen to stop by, I would treat you to one if you wanna sit with Jon and I outside for a hot moment

6/27/24 10:45:19 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Awwwww nice ok yes they are so good!!

6/27/24 10:45:35 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I'm gonna get Lu out and then try and get my nails done haha

6/27/24 10:47:02 AM EDT

Fresh starts require fresh digs, girl. Do you some you

6/27/24 10:47:12 AM EDT

I love you

6/27/24 10:47:23 AM EDT

Also, I saw a box on the counter that looked like a lot of fun to me!

6/27/24 11:00:05 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Yessssss that's for you babe!!!! Can't wait for you to see what it is!!

6/27/24 11:10:04 AM EDT

6/27/24 11:52:18 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

6/27/24 1:43:32 PM EDT

Hi!

6/27/24 1:49:32 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hey babe I'm at target! Is the plan still to meet at therapy or do you need a ride!!

6/27/24 2:11:55 PM EDT

Im coming home in 15

6/27/24 2:12:23 PM EDT

We didnt have to head north today

6/27/24 2:15:11 PM EDT

So much rushing for a fast turnaround on such a freakin complex, tho highly cool and creative proposal they wanted emailed to them today and they called an hour ago to say their office is swamped and "can you come back monday in person to deliver and walk us through it"

6/27/24 2:15:43 PM EDT

So we have more time and the weekend at the house to get it so amazingly spot on

6/27/24 2:16:35 PM EDT

And i feel sooo relaxed now i absolutely hate pressured like that and feeling rushed and felt rushed anxiety i havent felt in maybe 40 days but it immediatly left me once they called earlier

6/27/24 2:17:46 PM EDT

Packin up now. We have a moment to go into what i have been really looking forward to in this 3pm session now in a relaxed, centered state of mind without rushing back for it which i never wanted to begin with! Haha

6/27/24 2:18:54 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Sounds good love I'm leaving here soon I'll come home to get you so we can go over together!

6/27/24 2:23:36 PM EDT

Oh really? I can get back home, but if you got me at low tide, that would allow me to fill out the paperwork for the therapy session. Letha is re-forwarding it now I can't locate it anywhere

6/27/24 2:28:54 PM EDT

Also, Letha texted and said if starting at 3:15 was easier, she could accommodate that

6/27/24 2:29:06 PM EDT

So if you're feeling rushed, no need to

6/27/24 2:29:51 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

No rush and yes I can come tools tide

6/27/24 2:29:57 PM EDT

6/27/24 5:09:46 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Lucy at the bayou with this breeze is therapy!
Come join us babe!

6/27/24 5:10:25 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I have my headphones on you should too we will have some healthy silence but be out with Lu and the sun

6/27/24 5:29:44 PM EDT

I know thats better than unhealthy silence. And i want it so bad.

Anything offered to me like this makes my heart just want to jump in and just be with you.

But why is there a part of me screaming to be careful, to not immediately take that bid, run to you for warmth and love, jumping into the deep end? - Like a subconscious part of me now getting heard by the conscious me, reminding me yet again of the let down ill find on the other side.

So badly, and so deeply do i want that moment with you. for so long.

I want it so bad. But what if its not real, or what if its not the type of love i scramble emotionally for, showing up to find out its because you pity how i might be feeling here right now

Should i move forward with extreme caution? Do i run towards you exposing myself to what i fear is, or isnt, waiting for me, with lucy, at my, at our special place of solace, inner peace, love, or whatever it is that has no words to describe?

What if i share something i feel? What if i have to get it out of me and whatever it is just speaks to you in the safety i habitually lean on, being my wife, being with the safest person ive ever known to be with at the safest spot that knows me so well.

Im scared to join you. Im scared to say yes

6/27/24 5:31:50 PM EDT

And im so sorry for that

6/27/24 5:34:14 PM EDT

Please do not feel sorry or sad for me

6/27/24 5:37:04 PM EDT

What i want to be reflecting on is you right now, less me. I want to sit and think back to times i saw and felt a different us, times i saw and felt how happy you felt being with me

6/27/24 5:37:43 PM EDT

For right now, that is also not real, its not today, but its safe for this present moment to reflect backwards

6/27/24 5:38:53 PM EDT

I know what it is, but maybe theres answers there

6/27/24 5:39:39 PM EDT

And maybe speaking what comes to mind is only going to bring us both back to the present.

6/27/24 5:40:10 PM EDT

And im not getting that part right, ive realized

6/27/24 5:41:35 PM EDT

The talking part of this. I dont know how. I hear that you think im good at talking. Really good. But i have to question anything i see and feel and say its what the feedback all around me says over and over and not just you saying it. Maybe thats where this just gets worse, in my misreading, in my response

6/27/24 5:42:32 PM EDT

My writing has found its way into the wrong app and this is a lot of words

6/27/24 5:42:52 PM EDT

But thank you for reading how im experiencing my moment

6/27/24 5:49:46 PM EDT

I wouldnt feel right robbing you of having dog beach time

6/27/24 5:49:56 PM EDT

I can finish here and head back soon

6/27/24 6:16:07 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok just here doing laundry and what not

6/28/24 12:06:02 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Please call me asap

6/28/24 12:06:24 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I don't know where you are I'm worried and about to call the police to help find you

6/28/24 12:06:31 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Please let me know you're ok

6/28/24 12:08:19 AM EDT

Please dont call the police. Im in an uber heading to gulfport. Pretending you care isnt something im buying anymore, and im done listening

6/28/24 12:25:48 AM EDT

You duped me. You sat there in that waiting room having successfully tricked me. You got me. I told the same story 5 times. About me all that. I said my wife was here doing the same self admission as i was. I kept listening for you in the rooms near me. I felt compassion for how were feeling having the same hard conversations as i was. I was proud of you. I never for a second thought you were camping out in the waiting room breaking our agreement. I wont surface from this. You'll try, youll call john, you'll say things i want to fall for just to get a glimpse of love back in our lives. I wrote to you today about my fears, you read those fears. And like the fears my texts portrayed sent during my time writing after our therapy, fears of falling for any connection or resemblance of your love i knew so well, i get absolutely fooled. You never intended to walk into that ER. I read your face. It told me what you knew id have to learn in that moment exiting an ER experience that was wildly over sold. Doc told me the police tell everyone the ER is some holy land of mental care, but im a daily occurrence for him. Another stray in the middle of the night misinformed about how it all works. But still i asked to exhaust the resources. I told my story. I got information and morsels of value, enough details about the slimest of options for tonights best effort to explore what this ER psych thing was all about - to talk with you about outside it outside the ER about. And there i learn what i learn. How did that feel? Tell me. How did you think i might take that moment? Are you really concerned about me?

6/30/24 7:22:03 AM EDT

We are up early with a full day planned.

Texting you now as I am avoiding my phone altogether today. I will check it later this evening.

We will be at the house today except from 11:30-2pm.

Please tell me if / when you plan to return. I prefer to know. It will help me be respectful to your arrival - cleaning up and being elsewhere - John gone as well.

I will return late tonight when you're home in your room for the night. That is my preference.

Secondly:

I am accepting your terms - the only terms offered to me for communication.

You, your Dad, Mary, me, my Mom, and my Dad.

Once you tell me firm dates you can fly to PA (that are also dates that work for your Dad and Mary), I'll then confirm on behalf of me/my parents

I will wait for date options from you.

Please work with me to move this forward as quickly as possible. Agreed?

6/30/24 7:41:45 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hi, yes I'd like to return tonight whenever you and John are finished working at the house. Please let me know what a good time is.

6/30/24 7:52:31 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Also I don't understand your point about flying to PA, it's not needed. If we want to have a conversation with our parents involved they can be on the phone if needed.

6/30/24 11:33:28 AM EDT

"...my dad and Mary need to be present."

I have been thinking this whole time (now learning that i misinterpreted your written words) that you meant "present," as in - present not in person, but by phone

You can maybe see why i didn't get that one right

The severity of your reaction in the midst of the situation, coupled with the seriousness and weight of the details supported my assumption that "present" meant nothing other than having our parents face to face

These are details you couldn't otherwise share with me personally, i assumed, and this were terms that would provide safety to communicate and a likelihood that you be heard - better heard and understood if it were in-person.

Over the phone is your call, but i would like the whole story and to have support in hearing it and also you to have the support in hearing what i have to say. My parents aren't hearing getting the message clearly, and the last attempt of yours to convey the message was over the phone. Maybe being in-person, both sets could, at once, could truly hear where you have been coming from, along with hearing me - something i never thought a faceless merging of faceless voices could accomplish. Do you feel comfortable being next to me when you share these things, only to get off the phone call and be left to deal with the aftermath of emotion without them there to support you? I imagined that was part of it as well

(Just corrected typos it my text didnt make sense but is good enough now - i want to get this right is all)

6/30/24 11:59:27 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

We can figure this next step out later on. For now please let me know what a good time is to return home based on yours and John's plans.

6/30/24 12:01:57 PM EDT

What time would you like to be home. We are debating a change of scenery so be honest with what youd like. Its your home, Lucy misses you, at the end of the day, things aside i want you to feel welcome and to maintain a sanctity of home as much as possible

6/30/24 12:03:03 PM EDT

We can work around this and be respectful and john wants this as well

6/30/24 12:08:54 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I'd like to return around dinner time if possible so like 6-7pm.

6/30/24 12:17:45 PM EDT

Ok that will work.

What is your preference for how we interact or not interact, face to face or not, its really your call i dont have a preference but will honor your time at home.

Either choice, i will not be starting any dialog around existing issues. I wont be walking into your room to engage emotionally.

If you want that, id like to know ahead of time so i can mentally prepare

6/30/24 12:18:08 PM EDT

I will also not be rude or give cold shoulders.

6/30/24 12:18:43 PM EDT

I will be pleasant and will talk through administrative details we still need to be in communication on

6/30/24 12:19:43 PM EDT

But if you tell me you want to talk, i will show up with nothing but open arms and ears. Im still here for you. Im not an enemy and i dont see you as my enemy. Just wanted you to know this

6/30/24 12:21:55 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I agree we should try our best to not be rude and can communicate if it's respectful.

6/30/24 4:13:13 PM EDT

John thought you were coming home monday i thought sunday just confirming with you and if you want or dont want john around this evening. He has a date he left for but we just realized john thinks hes sleeping over again tonight so he left all his monitors and stuff at the house. You will be home before he gets it all. Just a heads up on that and also confirming tonight you come home just so john can see it

6/30/24 4:16:52 PM EDT

If tonight, i just fed lucy and at the bayou now running but is raining and heading back. Please get her out for a run when you get back. I will head back to lowtide shortly and if you return this evening like i told john today, then he wants to leave his monitors in the living room bc he thought he was staying a seconf night snd we have our proposal due tomorrow and wants to not have to move his stuff to take up that time. Will so best to make it welcome for you

6/30/24 4:17:50 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok that's no problem and I think I can stay another night here which would be good anyway and I'd like to do

6/30/24 4:19:58 PM EDT

7/1/24 6:58:22 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

What are your plans for returning home? Just wondering

7/1/24 7:25:03 PM EDT

I had signed myself up for a massage from Tucker here so im going in now. By far the best masseuse for me. Hes a real pro. And for $2 a minute. i asked him if he has openings for you and he said he would be happy to but leaves in an hour

7/1/24 7:26:04 PM EDT

But otherwise im pretty tired so not last long just hanging

7/1/24 7:29:37 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Nice yes please enjoy the massage, I'll catch him next time. I'm out with Lu now then heading home and gonna head to bed. Do you have any of Lucy's food on the cart? I fed her earlier but she didn't finish it all I'm wondering if it's gone bad

7/1/24 7:45:47 PM EDT

grilled which was a

Are you wanting of,, or needing, anything from me this evening. Just seeing where youre at

7/1/24 8:00:30 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I don't need anything right now, just continue keeping our space I think that's good.

7/2/24 1:10:06 PM EDT

What is our dental network through our benefits and

7/2/24 1:11:07 PM EDT

Sorry, voice to text is failing me. I was wondering what network or what carrier our dental insurance is through. I would like to schedule a cleaning.

7/2/24 1:13:02 PM EDT

If there is any benefits information overall that you can send me like our entire benefits, package and information for all the bits and pieces that would be very appreciated and if it is something that you have shared with me in an email prior then I apologize, but I would like to have it emailed to me when you have a chance for now. If you happen to know the dental carrier that is fine please let me know. I know Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida a.k.a. Florida blue is healthcare and sometimes healthcare and dental can be supported under one carrier for the few that do that, but I wanted to be certain so please let me know

7/2/24 1:14:01 PM EDT

I'm also reaching out to my primary via phone today since my chart is not getting me anywhere. I will keep updates to myself from this point forward and relieve you of any responsibility you feel to continue forward with that. I am relying not on you but myself.

7/2/24 1:22:14 PM EDT

My appointment with Melissa Hoperich at USF Health Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Neurosciences is on Jul 9th. Arriving at 12:45 pm for 1:00 pm appointment. They are asking for my confirmation and it will be my decision to confirm and attend or not. Should you wish to know just ask and I will provide honest updates.

But I am asking you to no longer be involved in my well-being outside of answering questions that you being the policy owner would know once I have a few pieces of information like the dental network or things like that I will very quickly not need anything further.

Eventually, and very shortly, our benefits will end at the end of the month the same month you quit. The first day of the following month you quit will be the day I own my own policy moving forward

Please do me the honor of being transparent in your planning. And please do not make any career or major life decisions around my need for healthcare. Let go of that if there is anything still there within you making decision decisions for any one or anything other than yourself.

7/2/24 2:17:59 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I will send you benefits info later or tomorrow depending how busy it is here. I hear your request for me to not be involved in your care unless you otherwise request. I called this morning to renew your trileptal prescription and the car is available to you tomorrow to go and pick it up. Friday at 11am I scheduled for an oil change otherwise car is available also.

7/2/24 2:59:40 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Just emailed you benefits summary to your personal email and our shared email so two ways to access the information.

7/2/24 3:00:56 PM EDT

Received. Id like to get you schedule of things shortly. To not have surprises. I also have ideas to contribute to expediting it so shortly id like to talk face to face not over text

7/2/24 3:01:16 PM EDT

Yes, we have therapy tomorrow but time outside of that as well

7/2/24 3:01:52 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Not sure what this means, "schedule of things."

7/2/24 3:02:18 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

And not sure what expediting it means, expediting what exactly?

7/2/24 3:27:10 PM EDT

Expediting means helping you move faster towards what you want and away from me.

There is a list of things that will take place during that effort, whether I help you expedite or stand in your way

One of those things is the day you give notice to quit your job. That creates a future day on my schedule that requires me to ensure healthcare benefits for myself.

This is one example of what I mean by schedule of things. And if we are in communication and upfront about our intentions then at the very least there are no surprises.

Correct this if im wrong ( as the below is what im aware based on what i see and from what little you tell me - in which i can only plan)::

Every signal I have from you is a signal that only comes from somebody who: is moving towards immediate and swift physical, verbal, and emotional distancing (not just all forms of distancing within a shared home like we have now, but in your case, distancing yourself into a second additional home, you, yourself, occupy away from me and doing so within the same or bordering neighborhood, then after that, furthering the distancing into a your own home in a different state)

Unless you come to the table expressing anything different and therefore contradicts what I believe to be true i will move forward with the understanding that you have decided, for you, that our marriage is not fixable and no longer wanted

So then, a schedule of things becomes very serious. If we share what we need, we are scheduling, why be enemies. So far, I have no reason for you to be my enemy. I very much don't want that. That is my choice as of today you are not my enemy, but one other signal I am interpreting and having finalized is the answer to one question: are you deciding that I am your enemy? If that is clearly evident and without question then I would be a sitting duck if I didn't declare the same, please don't make that decision. We can help each other be better people as we head into the next life and into future relationships. Right now we are both being given council from our respective families. your family will advise you to become a vicious, angry person that finds good reason to be vengeful and money seeking. I love your dad and Mary, but Mary will turn to that very quickly and your father will support it myself and my corner have a different perspective. They support me in finding a path, any path that leads with a fair and equitable, but kind and compassionate path forward.

So on the schedule of things is when you decide to be my enemy as a result of making it clear that I am yours

7/2/24 4:21:30 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you for clarifying what you meant, a lot to process so I will reflect on what you said.

7/3/24 11:32:51 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hey wanted to see if that's a good plan for you to stay at the house until we can figure out another plan

7/5/24 3:44:51 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I'm starting to not feel well, sore throat and nauseous so will probably just come home and sleep tonight and work at 7am tomorrow

7/5/24 4:53:04 PM EDT

I felt I needed to stick to the space and emotional safety that you asked for. So I kept working towards getting out of Gulfport and avoiding the temptation of trying to resolve anything

If I'm at the house, then I'll just make you worse frankly and maybe everything we've gone through is a result of you getting sick

I also feel sick but in a different way. I've never been suicidal. I've never been passively suicidal. At my core I have been feeling better than I have ever felt.

I think that has enabled me to not fold into a dark place. If I were in any way, passively suicidal or anything close to that this morning would have been the bottom.

I'm happy to say that it was the bottom in terms of my emotional sadness. that is as sad as I can be.

I don't blame you for not wanting to touch me or hug me. You've been through so much. I wanted your touch, and reciprocate with a hug that you could feel how much i love you, that im here, physically, and mentally. I wanted to remind you of who i am still, and how much I love you.

I want to keep talking until we land somewhere. I want to keep working on us. I have never accepted that we are over, but I started questioning if that's what you wanted so I started to speak it. Please know i only want you for the rest of my life

I have to reiterate once more, although I have felt true depression, and a inadequacy to be a sufficient husband to you in many ways and dealt with grief and guilt, I am strong. I am stronger than you think. I get my strength from you.

This does not omit my need to stay on a plan, but I need some structure. Some time and solitude will be nice, but I would like to pursue a path side-by-side with Lucy.

At the end this path which is a therapeutic and programmatic path, built on animal assisted therapy principles through referrals I trust, I will return with a dog that is certified as an emotional support dog, and I will have completed something of interpersonal value with a living animal that supports us both

She is our dog. Lucy, our little girl. Is 100% our dog. I am not taking Lucy from you. I am not stealing her. You'll get home and you won't see her things but I ask that you trust me. That is a tall ask from where you stand, but I am stronger and more capable than I have appeared to you to be. You see me at my worst and every day I have a hard part and every day I get through it.

I also want you to know that I have secured a real job, but I've managed to find something that doesn't need me immediately. This gives me a window of time. Albeit, roughly forty-five days from today until I start.

This gives me structure in the future and I want to start that role with structure going in.

This also gives me a window of time. Now is the time I must make moves for myself there are things that I will communicate to you in these coming days and it's best I put them in email such as house cleaning items to ensure you have everything you need. I will support you from afar

I went to put something on on your desk and saw my banking passwords. I'm not upset and I'm not suspicious. You feel uncomfortable and I'm so sorry for that.

if you were seeking clarification on our finances, you had a right to go into accounts. I also consider yours.

This tells me that I need to be better. This tells me that you have concerns about my ability to manage something. I have always been proud of my ability to do.

I want to tell you all about what role i found. I think its perfect. but I want to be at peace with myself and who I have become.

It also gives me the opportunity to not only focus on me and have Lucy support me, it gives me a window of time to also pursue my dream. In tandem with getting ready for what starts in 45 days and by getting ready, I mean, focusing on this journey in the short term it also gives me the time to finally focus by finally focus. I mean to continue with John and I started.

We secured a real customer. We secured a real medical clinic that will pay us in phases for the second brain in architecture i've technology and artificial intelligence. I have always believed, with the vision I have around it that it could be extremely valuable. This is my invention that I spoke to you about when we had our beautiful day at the beach I got somebody to buy it. I got somebody to buy the vision of it and anything great starts with a partner who is in the market. I am so thrilled with this, but it came on the same day as our therapy and so with this path, I can return to being thrilled, but also content in my sadness for the state of our relationship.

I believe if we pause to reflect, we have a chance every day from here forward and every day in the past, I'm fighting for that chance.

When I left for the first Airbnb, I was going to take the time to heal in solitude. I didn't get that chance. Outside of the place not being somewhere sleep-able, my heart missed everything.

I'm getting out of town. I will not be local, i have a car and a safe place to accept me. I am sound of mind. I need this and i had to love quick. I admit i left without discussing. These are the life decisions that ive made before at such crossroads. My gut is conscious amd strong. I trust it.

I want to say as well that this sounds excitable and possibly manic. Please know the plan that I have stuck to and the medicine I have taken has worked, but I don't show you that side. I have the medicine I need and am coordinating a pharmacy for refills. My goal is to avoid ADHD stimulants. I want to put my heart first . Part of this therapeutic program and my intent going into it is specifically this also, as I tend to do, I have quickly built a relationship with who I need to in order to have an otherwise expensive program be free or next to free as I will have expenses as I normally would so this program does come with side work, but it is side work that comes easy to me

I understand. I'd like to talk too. I welcome Barb to this. I want to communicate well. I have no guard up, I am not coming in swinging. This time is needed. Sounds good, I'm off Fri-Sunday let me know what day and time works and I'll talk to Barb.

7/9/24 1:00:07 PM EDT

Saturday and Sunday, are ideal. Evening is best, but I can honestly make any time work.

7/9/24 5:03:52 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

My work schedule this week has changed so how about Sunday at 7pm?

7/9/24 5:20:01 PM EDT

Ok. If i need to shift, it would only be to an earlier time like 6pm Sunday, but i wont do that last minute. And wont ask for any time later than 7pm on Sunday

Want to do like a google meet? Or phone call. Just so i know what u prefer

7/9/24 5:37:53 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

6pm is fine too and phone call works

7/9/24 5:39:12 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

If there's anything I need to prepare to discuss please let me know

7/9/24 6:01:59 PM EDT

Ok i will put into an email for that

7/9/24 6:03:24 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok

7/9/24 6:03:55 PM EDT

Its philly condo related, tenants decided to not renew. I will forward their email for you to see. And i will provide you with all the information i have and how i read that information. Its also time sensitive. If you could read it sooner than later, there is something to respond to before Sunday.

7/9/24 6:04:38 PM EDT

But its not a high pressure thing like a decision you have to make long term in this moment

7/9/24 6:07:50 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Oh got it! Let me know when you send the email so I can check it thank you!!

7/10/24 10:13:12 PM EDT

I still owe you an email. I apologize, but I should be able to get it to you tonight or tomorrow.

Also, we are doing OK and we are safe. I just figured I would let you know that of course I hope the same.

Can we do 6 PM on Sunday? Phone works

7/11/24 1:11:47 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you for letting me know you and Lu are safe. Where are you guys? Sunday at 6pm works for me and Barb

7/11/24 3:21:43 PM EDT

Austin, TX.

The interviews i have are here, lucy's stuff i mentioned i found, i found here, too. Shes almost an official emotional support dog

Morris' house is empty, couches and a bed are still there, no one living in it. Its in staging for showings and im just keeping it clean and helping while they are both away.

Him and chelsea also live with their new girlfriend/boyfriends so they never even go back to their old spot.

Its a Good sized house and i just needed a place to go. Its selling by end of august and maybe sooner i just learned. So there's that.

Im just doing my best all ways around and then helping them by packing up stuff and taking pictures and selling their stuff on craigslist as a thank you and a way of helping with their loose ends. Its peaceful and sad honestly. But peace is what is needed.

7/11/24 4:24:50 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Are you planning to return to Florida? I'll be leaving end of next week permanently so August you can be at our place in Florida.

7/11/24 4:44:56 PM EDT

I wasn't settling on any firm plans until I heard and spoke with you. I assumed Sunday id learn more knowing this timeline now, I guess i still don't have a firm plan, but have information...so I guess knowing this timeline you have now gives me an option i didnt know before.

before this news i was planning for the worst / longest timeline away and was trying to find places to live through end of august in the event you needed to stay at your job in tampa and still wanted to not live with me.

And then the bigger questions ...which i guess overrule any over thinking or planning is.. where is your heart? ... where is my heart...and what do we do about it

7/11/24 7:10:19 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Yes I agree we should plan to talk about it Sunday what the next steps are in our relationship.

7/11/24 7:36:14 PM EDT

It's long but i dumped all my notes on this from earlier and it does explain everything so exhaustive, but what you need i think

7/11/24 7:40:21 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Did you email me you mean?

7/11/24 7:45:24 PM EDT

Shoot. So sorry. That was for a videographer who I just shared a iPhone notes file with explaining a shoot he's doing for us since I can't be there to do it next week and John is still at hospice with his friend and husband

7/11/24 7:49:45 PM EDT

The email is about what to do about the condo. I have the details so you can take a look at it yourself but Juliana would need to start either listing it soon for tenants or listing it soon to sell . I did reach out to her and asked for details on both options. she originally recommended selling it and listing 450,000 she has since said the comps have changed and she recommends listing it at 465,000 I have those details so we can talk through that and the assessment schedule she forces for the HOA and you should absolutely talk to her yourself to hear all the details not from me

7/11/24 7:52:24 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok got it I'll take a look at the email thank you

7/14/24 10:14:07 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Steve, on Wednesday you said you would send me an email that day or the next regarding the condo. I still have not received an email from you and while your lack of follow through is not surprising to me it does make it difficult to progress things forward. Also, we can re schedule our call to another day/time after you send me the information.

7/14/24 6:01:12 PM EDT

Im sorry.

7/15/24 8:38:28 AM EDT

Hi, good morning,

I wont be joining any call where I am alone and coming in blind on terms that don't consider us both. You gave the reason why barb was joining, but i did not feel comfortable, frankly.

I will not be putting you in any position where there is a setting fit for one person's comfort, me, but not the other, you.

you would have felt uncomfortable as well.

You offered prior to speak more openly and share in the setting of your dad, mary, my parents, and me.

When i decided to take you up on that, i felt a lot more pull back and i didnt press you beyond questioning the impacts of doing something like that over a phone call where i had imagined the seriousness of your terms dictated in-person.

All that aside. I dont have a fight in me. I feel like you very well may. I dont have to do much talking. I can just listen. Im okay speaking 1:1 if you are.

Perhaps we can just focus on the condo and not get into much else. If we partner on that, we might feel good taking the next steps, whatever direction those may lead us

7/15/24 8:52:20 AM EDT

7/15/24 8:52:50 AM EDT

Should you want to use a different Realtor, I certainly am not dictating it be Juliana, but I would nominate her from my perspective and be open to somebody should you present someone else

7/15/24 8:59:28 AM EDT

If we decide that selling or renting to new tenants are the best options, Juliana said the end of this week would be the time to deliver that answer. That is the final piece of factual timeline information I received in my legwork thus far , so you have everything for me.

7/15/24 8:59:48 AM EDT

And there would be paperwork involved with both of those scenarios to move quick on

7/15/24 9:09:32 AM EDT

I have sent everything i stated above as of this moment

7/15/24 9:26:23 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thanks for sending the information. I can reach out to Juliana if needed and I'm asking courts mom as she is also a realtor. You are encouraged to include anyone you want on a call with me if that is what you want to do. We can also ask Letha/marriage counselor if she does phone calls for a neutral option. It's likely we will sell the condo as I am not in a position to buy you out of it and I get the sense you want to sell with that you've shared with me with the upcoming assessments etc and that you aren't returning to Philly.

7/15/24 9:44:35 AM EDT

My vote is to list is as soon as we can to give us the best option to consider. We can always decide to not sell, even with offers made to buy it. After 3-4 weeks, Juliana will reduce the price and offered that we all step back and look at data with her

There are two things to sign. 1) Sellers Disclosure and 2) Listing Contract with Juliana.

We both have to sign each. They come through to your personal email, then they pass to me. If you agree, I'll text Juliana on a group chat and get her moving on that

7/15/24 9:51:02 AM EDT

Outside of this topic, i have a few more questions and dont want to bombard you. Is today a good day to be sending these other questions via text or would you prefer i email them

7/15/24 9:54:17 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok I'm pretty sure I want to sell just want courts mom to take a look if possible so I'll get back to you on it once I hear from her. You can send me your questions via text that's fine. I also have info to send you about Lucy's health stuff so if you want it over text or email let me know.

7/15/24 10:29:34 AM EDT

Ok i will ask juliana to send them to your personal gmail only because it may or may not take a day or two to get them once we ask if shes busy or something. Pretty sure she has them ready

7/15/24 10:37:29 AM EDT

When did you/or when are you planning to Leave Gulfport?

When is your last work day at TGH ?

First day at new job in philly is when?

Im assuming back at Pennsylvania Hospital ?

7/15/24 10:42:03 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Leaving Gulfport Saturday 7/20 with last day at TGH technically being 7/26 but I had scheduled time off so won't physically be there at work. I don't have a job in Philly yet I'll be moving home to live with Mary and my dad until I find one.

7/15/24 11:05:35 AM EDT

your last day is before the last day in July then, correct?

Which means our health insurance ends once August 1st begins?

And are you getting cobra through TGH?

Thanks for answering all these btw

7/15/24 11:17:28 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Health insurance will end last day of July and I guess I'll see what cobra costs if I opt in or not

7/15/24 11:20:26 AM EDT

How are you doing?

7/15/24 11:22:38 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I am heartbroken

7/15/24 11:50:04 AM EDT

We were so happy. I was. I hoped you were. i had started to wonder. Wondered if you were happy with me, could be happier, annoyed for a moment, or annoyed with who you'll be with forever... and i know, in all of this, i lost the focus on things, and i lost focus on us.

We are entering serious steps right now. All i see hear from people is just how terrible it gets from here.

the bulk of the advice someone gets in this situation is all about positioning oneself for war. I hate that. I really do.

I cant think like that when we haven't even taken the steps to put out hearts truly on the table, after time has passed, time and that talk was/is the only way we have a chance ,

I just hope so badly that when the time is right, if you feel it can happen, i hope that we just get to see each other and talk. With the intension of getting it all out. Without the pressures of what happens afterwards.

One day im oneway and the next day im the other, soon we'll end up making up each others answers to our questions and close off for good.

7/15/24 11:50:40 AM EDT

No pressure to respond. We dont have to do this now. Im gonna get some work in anyway and im just distracting you with this

7/17/24 8:44:04 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I relate to a lot of what you are saying.

7/17/24 8:44:42 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Courts mom offered to sell our place for free/no commission. I don't feel right about giving her nothing but we could agree to give something if we want her to do it.

7/17/24 10:22:28 AM EDT

I'm hesitant to chase free for the sake of it when the level of service is so incredibly high for Juliana, who has sold a difficult place to sell already, lives in the building, knows the building, neighbors, neighborhood, etc. She also has the pictures already when we paid for them via the cost incurred from renting to tenants through Juliana. Its turnkey with Juliana. And zero time spent on anyone drafting paperwork, Juliana can reuse Richard's seller's disclosure, etc.,

We are a week+ behind ideal timing when looking at the end of September being the goal deadline to sell as we incur mortgage with no rental income once October 1st arrives (and every month thereafter). With Juliana, this is listed and shown in the days/hours after we sign two docs each.

I'm open to being given information that influences me otherwise

But 3 percent is a tab that pays for itself vs throwing courts mom into the throws of 76 traffic for single showings or the like, and I really don't prefer favors when stakes are high

She's so nice but then we can't be firm or whatever bc we will feel like we are getting a favor and I always talk about my bad experience or preference rather to not have favors in representation or urgent high ticket things

7/17/24 12:19:12 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok

7/17/24 12:22:45 PM EDT

I am completely open to hearing reasons im not thinking of. im typing candidly as i see it not knowing anything about her strategy, location she will be SC or PA, or anything really. Id like to make important decisions together so please be that strong voice of yours as you have points valuable for us both to evaluate

7/17/24 12:37:57 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I don't have it in me to go back and forth on it so I'll acquiesce to whatever you want to do

7/17/24 12:38:59 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hoping we can come to a fair agreement on the profit

7/17/24 12:47:25 PM EDT

Can you please message juliana in the group chat and request sellers disclosure and listing contract and give your email

It will Come through docusign or similar.

If we can both get those and return signed digitally, today preferably, she can list immediately.

7/17/24 12:44:47 PM EDT

→ Replying to Melissa, 2024-07-17 12:38:59: «

Hoping we can come to a fair agreement on the profit »

In so many words, i have echoed this previously.... hatred, anger, spite, i choose none of it.

I want none of it. Especially towards you, at the expense of you, i cant just click into that. Especially because i have so few concrete answers to point to and contemplate. Im still numb and in limbo emotionally.

If i can be brought out of the dark someday, i would be so grateful for that.

To just truly understanding you, listen knowing im getting a chance to truly learn about feelings outside myself , how you feel based on what you see, and would possibly help me understand how/why you have acted and taken action towards me that dont add up based on the information im given / or, am just missing

This year has been so full of those hate-filled themes. I cant

And for 6+ years, every intension and instinct has been the complete opposite. Turning on a part of me that seeks to destroy someone, or something, isnt welcome here and wont surface with mutual efforts of keeping our character in tact. That means the little things. Insults or digs over text, just to get a jab in is fueling the wrong direction.

We will inevitably see "fair" as different. When we get to that point, if we reach a point where separate ways are factually happening, lets communicate with our highest selves. Its easy now, but that time will come, and it will test you, me.

And frankly, im not at the point of being sure of anything related to you and i. My heart has the same daily habits, i still love, i still care, just dont know where to put it all

7/17/24 1:24:41 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I'll message Juliana

7/17/24 1:34:39 PM EDT

Thank you. When ready...and im ready. Letting down guards and truly talking could lead to something. Inner peace would be so nice even if it hurts getting there

7/17/24 1:35:36 PM EDT

list date: thursday, July 18th

List price: $465,000

Agree?

7/17/24 1:37:03 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Fine

7/17/24 1:39:15 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I agree we need to have a conversation at some point about next steps in our relationship so decide who you want to be a part of it and we can set it up

7/17/24 1:48:21 PM EDT

I don't want or need anyone to be a part of it.

I feel as vulnerable and emotionally unsafe as you feel.

i have nothing to gain, or protect, by having an emotional barrier present, a barrier in the form of someone being there.

Speaking for myself, with others present, I don't expect either of us will use this opportunity to truly speak our true selves. I foresee progress in housekeeping and detail, but not what i want and need, both in listening from, and vocalizing, to you.

you would get less of me in that conversation having others there. If you need someone, i wont ask again to allow for a real genuine setting.

we both deserve to have that. Im asking to be accountable in my role in this. And im asking you to do the same . For that, we , or at least i, need more information.

7/17/24 1:56:13 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

What do you want information on/want to discuss so I can prepare and we can go forward from there

7/17/24 2:07:28 PM EDT

I want to respond with the right words to that. Thank you for asking. Ill take a little time on this. Day or two

7/17/24 2:11:26 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok

7/17/24 2:32:50 PM EDT

Seller's Property Disclosure Statement (E-Sig) - 721.pdf

7/17/24 2:32:50 PM EDT

I can't get to this until tonight maybe tomorrow morning. If you're able to complete it and have time, i can look through it. Im trying to share my half completed version to help, but don't think my responses carried over to this downloaded PDF version of it. Your call if you want to fill in as much as you can.

7/17/24 2:34:50 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Yeah I can't get to it until Saturday actually given my work schedule.

7/17/24 2:35:01 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

So if that's fine I'll do it then

7/17/24 2:37:29 PM EDT

Ill do it

7/17/24 2:54:21 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok, would this be part of the documents we had when we bought it? You have the binder with all the paperwork so I can't check but maybe this info is in there

7/19/24 12:01:03 AM EDT

I will be returning to Gulfport next week.

There is no obligation of yours to do anything related to cleaning up as you would when closing out the lease. I can take care of the final cleaning and i will be meeting with Zach in late-August for the walk-through, to close out the lease, and to turn the keys over to him/Luther.

To avoid guessing or assuming, id like to know how you are getting to Nags Head. Are you intending on taking the Jeep to NC, and then intending on taking it all the way to PA?

And with the golf cart being back at the house, id like to make sure that its there when i arrive. Please keep it stored in the garage.

7/19/24 12:43:06 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Got home from work and have been trying to get my computer to connect to internet to sign those documents you sent. No luck even after restarting it. I'll try tomorrow.

In regards to your other message:
I won't be cleaning up the mess you made of this place. I plan to take the jeep to nags head then to PA as you abandoned it when you took off with no warning and no communicated plan. The golf cart showed up at the house last week, and I put it in the garage and plugged it in.

7/20/24 1:39:56 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Signed one of the docs tonight and am going to reach out to Juliana to briefly discuss the other before I sign it.

7/20/24 10:57:59 AM EDT

After your family vacation, can we please talk?

I'd like to share. Please help make this easy to coordinate is all i ask.

You can continue to say nothing. I wont pressure a response.

I am thinking of you, your family, your nags head trip.

I cant help but feel hated and shunned. When i see the insults in a text from you and use of specific words, i know what version of history is being passed down and the emotionally hurt its conveyed in.

History is printed by the perspective that wrote it. Mine is much different. Maybe sharing that that element exists will bring a level of maturity to it all, similar to how we shared our story with my parents, but made sure to speak to Sarah and Nevan's perspective that wasnt entirely known, nor in the room to represent itself. The other route is smearing. If i had to guess, the storytelling and rumors rue the day, and im just going to accept that.

In my inner circle, i am your advocate, im proud how ive represented you...with compassion and love and a known sadness for us both that im being helped through without a prescription of hating you for reasons i could otherwise

I respect everyone there so much. Im expecting to lose them as family. And i am heavily grieving that.

7/20/24 11:13:18 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Steve we can talk when I'm home from NH yes.
What you tell your family and friends is up to you and I will not be micro managed on what and how I share my story and experience with the people in my life.

7/20/24 3:00:04 PM EDT

OK, maybe you can share that story with me the at some point?

And then I can share mine with you

I think me recommending that path with your family is my feeling of insecurity being the one in the dark.

At this point, i know less than everybody else in your life.

You have had a refusal to speak to me and share even before, for much time before.

I only have one request and this will be all you will hear for me ...

You quit your job in July and so August 1 is coming quickly as it relates to health Insurance

Even if we get divorced, I believe cobra is still something I'm eligible for and I would like to know what my options are there. My employer healthcare plan starts on October 1st. So I will bridge insurance for two months through cobra. That assumes the current plan allows for me to have it Independent of you opting to not having it or not. I just need the basics like the cobra insurance package they legally had to provide you in mail or emailed you.

If you have nothing from them to share or you are choosing not to share, then just tell me so I can be on my way

7/20/24 3:05:46 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I don't have any information about cobra as of right now. When I do I can share it. My mail will start being forwarded to PA but it's likely some things will still show up here so when you return to Gulfport you can also check the mail and see if anything came about cobra and let me know.

7/20/24 3:06:55 PM EDT

Ok. John and Jeremy offered to help you with boxes like up high in the garage. If you need anything like that, please let me know

7/20/24 3:07:27 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

None needed thanks, the stuff up there I'm not taking

7/20/24 3:09:47 PM EDT

I am also mailing you the keys to the storage and all of the things we had keys for as I am making copies for myself so we have two of what is needed, and only what is . I don't want keys to anything you feel I shouldn't and vice versa so we can just discard what keys we don't need .

I don't think I can copy the storage keys so I will mail those to you and just find a way to get my stuff out of there.

Anything you leave behind I will contact you and confirm what you want to do with with it when I am packing up the Gulfport house for good

7/20/24 3:09:59 PM EDT

What mailing address should I use for belongings and keys to send?

7/20/24 3:10:37 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

213 orchard way in Wayne pa 19087

7/20/24 3:13:39 PM EDT

And since I don't get any inclination that you want to resolve anything, and I see no love even behind this exterior, I will set wheels in motion to bring final resolution to our relationship. I don't even know what getting wheels in motion looks like, but I assume there are attorneys that we both will get and start to organize our assets and what not so while you're on vacation I will do that and I won't bother you until you're done. And I won't expect any money back from your crew because I don't even think that's something you would nominate nor would they pitch in for so unless you say otherwise it looks like I'm out of pocket for that one.

7/20/24 3:14:28 PM EDT

Nags head im speaking to

7/20/24 3:16:12 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Steve you said in couples counseling the marriage was over. I wanted to move out and stay local to continue to go to therapy and take care of Lucy. Instead, you said you would stay with a friend then you returned to the house and picked up and left with no warning or discussion so the message I've gotten from your words and actions is you don't want to work anything out.

7/20/24 3:19:04 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

If you want to go to nags head then I'll go until Wednesday and you can go second half of the week

7/20/24 3:29:21 PM EDT

The last time you quoted me on that specific topic, I told you it was misquoted and that is not what I said in the context you're phrasing it. I said I was understanding and coming to the realization that this may be over. And I said that because I was getting absolutely nowhere with you and you were a brick wall, shutting me out and wanting nothing to do with me. The level of hopelessness and sadness I felt for so long resulted in me contemplating that this was over. I corrected you before on this because I wanted it to be clear. I'm correcting you again so it's Crystal clear.

The level of emotional abuse I experienced was extreme. You accused me of being a manipulator, of having genuinely terrible intentions. But you never gave me anything specific one time you mentioned these moments existing within text messages I asked you to point to them and you did not. I still don't have any examples and I only want to know where I started to screw up. I was in a very down place and I felt you pushing me further down, holding me down and confusing me with messages that added up to me nothing and provide nothing I could work with. Your first wish was for me to pay for a place in Gulfport, but to spare my own expense, I opted to fall on that sword which turned into a negotiation that our therapist ultimately talk to you out of stripping me of even having a key which turned into me having a key and being a Dog Walker While scheduling those walks around your .

And with no forewarning, I packed up the golf cart with my belongings that I could fit, and did so as you comfortably put away your groceries and ate your food, you ignored my sobbing, you seem completely heartless and cold. You used our money on our shared card and offered me a bowl of leftovers hours later.

I know you feel how you feel and I may not understand your perspective, but I don't think the level of hurt and sadness I have is something that you're aware of . I spent months suffering from events outside of you and I felt the care you were providing started to feel like a veneer, and it didn't take long before that veneer was gone, and your true feelings towards me became apparent. Those were some of the coldest interactions I have ever experienced with anyone.

And if you want examples of manipulation, I have them all documented. I wrote everything down. I can speak to it and provide quotes that are accurate. I would want that if you had it so let me know.

You say I abandoned you after you have heard me say that about your abandonment of me emotionally. I took the opportunity to escape. I ran, ran it by the people I love and trust. It came with tremendous guilt. But I made the right decision and followed my heart. I'm turning off my phone for the weekend

7/20/24 3:50:32 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hopefully you're still meeting with mark and talking with him about all of this as he is the one to process it with.
You still can't and won't take responsibility and accountability for your own actions and I have nothing left in the tank for you. Nothing.

7/20/24 3:53:36 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Also I never accused you of having terrible intentions. But yes you have manipulated me extremely to the point I don't feel emotionally safe around you. Tell yourself what you want steve and justify and rationalize everything you want. We've had many conversations about the same thing over and over and also got to the point I didn't feel emotionally safe talking to you and you left before we could continue therapy and discuss more in a safe and neutral space so you can blame yourself for not having the information/answers you want not me.

7/20/24 3:54:39 PM EDT

I already blame myself

7/20/24 3:55:33 PM EDT

Point to the examples of manipulation. Be specific please.

7/20/24 3:56:51 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Not right now and not like this. I have them don't be mistaken, but I'm not discussing anything like that with you unless it's with a therapist/neutral party.

7/20/24 3:59:39 PM EDT

You offered that and I accepted. your parents and mine. But then you scaled it back to a faceless conversation when I told you, I was good with it. Let's just end this conversation two people experience the same life together and see things so drastically different. We wouldn't be the first ones to never come back from it. Take the week of course and I'll do the same. Im not welcome at Nags Head and it took me brining it up to be acknowledged, so I'll continue to consider my cell uninvited given the circumstances and I don't expect any money

7/20/24 4:02:06 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

A therapist is not your parents and mine. And it would've been a different convo with them than about manipulation but keep telling yourself whatever you want steve and if the people in your life supported you taking Lucy and leaving without any warning after you accused me of making a family decision without you when I said I was moving home then god bless those people and I'm glad they are not part of my life anymore because what you did was so fucked up but you'll never own up to that will just continue to rationalize your actions.

7/20/24 4:13:20 PM EDT

When the person you're married to lies to you to takes you to a hospital ER 35 minutes away, skipping the St Anthony's BAY CARE hospital for their own reasons, and does all this to get you into something that you dont need and doesnt even exist they way its portrayed, in does so in the veneer of your best interest, finding a way to justify the most blatantly cold lie, and hold this lie through the veil of two married people who ABOVE ALL ELSE, love each other and AGREE to do this together - for themselves and WITH each other....can you then imagine then you find out that you were completely manipulated and lied to, your partner in this tricked you, and then that person's response is is a note pointing at you being the problem? Can you imagine that pain.

And in therapy, you should tell the truth. When you say you "drove all over the neighborhood" for me, they dont know you have two phone apps that show im going 65 mph on a highway, and you should know when you say that, that one of those apps you picked and you picked the app that shows me the complete opposite.

Yea, i felt pretty unsafe myself, melissa. What would those 72 hours have looked like.

You tried to Baker Act me. Think about that. Then you pointed to the doctor as malpractice or whatever term you used.

Anyone who experiences that has the right to protect themselves with space

7/20/24 4:20:08 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Your perspective on that is completely different than mine and we will never agree. You refuse to acknowledge and accept your mental illness and I refuse to spend my life with someone who is in denial. It's not about the right to protect yourself with space as I'm the first to know how important that is, it's how you went about it so again rationalize to yourself whatever you want steve.

7/20/24 4:22:07 PM EDT

I was on the plan. I accepted the plan. I took every med, increased to weekly therapy. You said it would take time. But your patience didnt fit that timeline

7/20/24 4:22:47 PM EDT

The rationalizing is a two way street. Im accepting that im doing it. Its what we do. You dont see it tho

7/20/24 4:25:44 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Accepting a plan isn't the same as accepting your mental illness either way I don't see a way back from this and neither do you so next steps are clear

7/20/24 4:30:21 PM EDT

When I went into the hospital and you didn't was that me in denial or you?

When I went into the hospital and you didn't was that me taking a step towards accepting it?

Or was me going into the hospital under the guise of you doing the same and you not going in ...was that you taking a further step away from accepting your own? Are you in denial?

7/20/24 4:35:11 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I have nothing to say because again we completely disagree and I cannot and refuse to be with someone who has treated me and treats me like you do.

7/20/24 4:42:22 PM EDT

And i feel the exact same way

7/20/24 4:42:55 PM EDT

And we should both be equally sad and responsible for that. And can move to relief in time

7/20/24 4:43:29 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I will start to heal once I am completely separated from you in every way physically, emotionally and legally

7/20/24 4:50:19 PM EDT

Great. Lets get there. Take the jeep to PA but its under an LLC and registered in florida. So you wont be able to re register under your name in PA or insure it there under your name. You want to separate completely anyway so im sure you dont want it indefinitely anyway. Ill get started on everything. Enjoy your vacation

Steve, did you cancel the American Express card?

7/30/24 11:37:15 AM EDT

I ordered new one. Mine had charges that werent mine so they are reissuing

7/30/24 11:38:25 AM EDT

Recurring payments linked to the card should not be affected, according to Amex.

7/30/24 11:38:29 AM EDT

Why?

7/30/24 11:44:40 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Recurring payments through State Farm and storage didn't go through bc I guess they were tied to my Amex which was cancelled on 7/22

8/2/24 8:23:33 AM EDT

8/2/24 8:23:33 AM EDT

These are all the keys organized. In the top left, you'll see some of the tags that were written fell out of their holders and weren't attached to any specific key.

Other keys I'm not 100% sure on and I took out the keys that are related to rock Hall or Bethlehem, but the rest are here .

Even three silver keys attached to the red clip on the bottom right are keys. I can't answer for but are attached to a rock hall set and a Bethlehem key so any key in question I kept in this photo.

I have a close-up picture of each cluster of keys that I will send here now so you can get a better look

Tell me what you want copied and I will marry to Mary's

I believe the small abnormal looking key is for the storage unit in Philly

I would like to cancel that as soon as possible, and I am aware that the billing didn't go through

8/2/24 8:26:29 AM EDT

For State Farm, i am in touch with Steve Barney on transitioning away from our two policies (Auto and Golf Cart)

I can share my email to him if you want.

Steve returned my email with a voicemail yesterday

I plan to call Steve Barney back today

The email I wrote him, asks for his advice, but also gives him the timeline and intent of both policies as I see it but as it is a neutral decision with information, we should both be on the same page about, I am happy to share.

I would really prefer to avoid surprises or handling of things without the other person knowing.

8/2/24 8:28:50 AM EDT

I checked the mail and Gulfport and we still don't have anything regarding cobra from Tampa General.

I would really very much appreciate any update on that as yesterday was August 1 so we are off of the employer plan but can still backdate cobra with payment

I'd like to know if cobra is available to me and me alone or is it contingent upon you being on cobra as well?

If you can call your HR and get the information along with the phone number for me to call, I can speak with human resources and they will answer my questions as a former policy beneficiary with legal rights to cobra or at least the rights to have my questions answered directly from them

Melissa (+16106135939)

I can no longer access passwords in LastPass do you still have access? Trying to get into our rental insurance account

8/25/24 2:57:02 PM EDT

I exported everything to save a copy but didn't want to pay the $70 annual renewal what is the name of the company/site. I can share the spreadsheet export as well

Your letter came today but requires signature so I will go pick it up tomorrow just letting ya know

8/27/24 7:51:20 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Sounds good thanks. I'm waiting for a call from State Farm to cancel the renters insurance. When I called citizens they said State Farm has to cancel the policy

8/27/24 4:02:28 PM EDT

What date can my parents get the jeep with my storage belongings in it like we talked about. I just spoke to them and they don't have much availability so I'm hoping the below works for you. Or you can make it work hopefully

The only two dates that my parents can drive to your area to pick up the jeep (with the storage unit belongings in it) is:

- Monday, September 2nd
- Tuesday, September 3rd

After September 3rd, they will be gone from the area for over 40 days so they can't help if it's after the 3rd

If you could make the jeep available in a safe spot that you pick out like a public parking lot of wherever, even a driveway we can use would work, then I just need the address of where you leave the jeep. Please put the key on the front left tire like we used to do.

You don't have to meet them so you could go to the storage unit and leave the jeep somewhere any day you'd like before September 2nd or September 3rd as those dates are the two dates my parents would drive down to knock this out

Do you mind letting me know details on this today possibly??

Thank you, Melissa

8/27/24 4:22:00 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Hey was thinking about this, is there a rush to get your stuff/the car? It would help if I could use it until our 6th month plan is up with State Farm around 9/22 and I'll pay the jeep insurance that's due

8/28/24 10:50:56 AM EDT

OK, I am going to therefore get a car transport company to pick it up around the 22nd so you can use until then . I just ask if you can give me a firm date and a location that the jeep will be there on that firm date because I will have them arrive and the Jeep needs to be accessible for a truck to get to it ... so in like an open driveway or even better parked on a road off to the side like Orchard Way where Mary lives in mainline

8/28/24 10:52:08 AM EDT

Does that work for you?

8/28/24 10:53:28 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you really appreciate it. If it helps I can drive it and park it at your parents house if they are going to be away.

8/28/24 10:54:08 AM EDT

It's better in your area not Bethlehem actually but thanks for offering

8/28/24 10:54:28 AM EDT

I don't need to know today what the date is and the location but I do need to know as soon as possible pls

8/28/24 11:14:44 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok I understand and I'll call State Farm today to pay the insurance and figure out a date and let you know. Thank you again

8/28/24 1:43:04 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Great just spoke with State Farm I paid the insurance balance for the jeep. They told me they would cancel the renters insurance so when I get confirmation I'll send to you. There is a balance that's due on the golf cart from last month or so.

8/29/24 11:30:26 AM EDT

Ok I'll go pay it

8/29/24 4:17:36 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Great thanks! Did you get a chance to sign for the letter?

8/31/24 2:02:59 PM EDT

I am going to post office now . I requested a redelivery and it never returned. I'll let you know soon

8/31/24 2:04:44 PM EDT

Regarding the Jeep, can we compromise I'm in a bind in terms of timing and can adjust as much as until Sunday , September 15th to have it picked up. That's one week before the 22nd and hoped we could find a balance there

There are two

9/4/24 2:53:37 PM EDT

So will open and read

9/4/24 3:22:54 PM EDT

I won't sign this and return it without council.
You're aware I have received it so you shouldn't need more info than that

9/5/24 3:34:20 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thank you for update. My understanding is that your signature is confirmation you received the letter and nothing more. Either way I agree for you to get council for review and I'd never want you to sign anything you're uncomfortable with.

9/5/24 3:44:27 PM EDT

Ok thank you. I have conversations going with a PA lawyer. It's best I come back for a few days so I'll be there Sept 13-15th for lawyer, accountant meeting, and jeep pickup

9/5/24 3:45:24 PM EDT

But already picked a lawyer so they are reviewing soonish

What is meeting with the accountant? Is it regarding anything I need to know?

9/8/24 3:28:27 PM EDT

I have a lawyer, she has everything your lawyer sent to me, and I've finished all the lawyer requests to reply so that is that for now. Just letting you know as of today its in my lawyers lap and ball moving forward

9/10/24 11:20:02 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thanks for the updates. Storage unit needs to be emptied by 9/28. I am working on getting my stuff out.

9/10/24 12:06:29 PM EDT

Will my stuff be in the jeep when I pick it up, or should I plan to go to the storage location in old city, remove final belongings of mine and turn the keys in? And I assume you notified them its closing that's why we have until the 28th, just confirming

9/10/24 12:08:43 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

You should go and get your own stuff. our move out date on the locker is 9/28.

9/10/24 12:23:40 PM EDT

What about where I can find the jeep. I have to leave Philly with it by Sunday sept 15 th in the morning. If it's possible to get it the 14th that would be appreciated but if it's the agreed upon Sunday the 15th then I have to get it at 9-10am no later. What do you think? And where will the jeep be located with key?

9/11/24 6:24:01 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Jeep will be parked at radnor hotel Saturday by 5pm. I'll send you exact location on Saturday.

I hope you're ok Steve! If I haven't heard from you by tonight and Jeep still there I'm gonna get it so it's not sitting in parking lot ok!

9/15/24 12:00:26 PM EDT

Please don't move it

9/15/24 12:03:56 PM EDT

It will be gone by end of day

9/15/24 12:10:24 PM EDT

I called Radnor hotel and they are aware that it's getting picked up and it will be OK there

9/15/24 12:24:46 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok perfect that's fine just wasn't sure if you were still planning to get it, thanks for letting me know. There's a piece of mail in there for you and storage unit elevator code that you'll need to get in.

9/15/24 8:21:39 PM EDT

Thank you

9/16/24 10:14:01 AM EDT

The tow has been difficult to work with. I'm told it's being picked up today. Radnor Hotel is aware of what is happening. Please don't move the Jeep. It's being towed to a place to be appraised for cost to fix and revive or appraised sell depending the verdict

9/16/24 10:18:17 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I won't move it thanks for the update. I called State Farm they need a FL address so I gave them your phone number so they can reach out to you to arrange insurance etc.

Hey, reminder that storage unit has to be emptied by 9/28. Were you able to get your stuff out/what's your plan to get your stuff out. Also there's a king mattress and the furniture piece we got from the Russians what do you wanna do with those.

9/20/24 12:08:46 PM EDT

Here is an update. The Jeep is at Garttmeyer automotive on Lancaster the place I always took it so they know it well the short of it is there is $8000 of repair work needed and there's no option to do a couple thousand dollars and then get by for a while And they don't wanna buy it. There is one place in Rockhall. My dad suggested it before making any decisions as they are very cheap and friendly to locals and my dad. The problem is that I cannot get back to Philadelphia until October 6 and my dad can't get to the jeep until October 1. The mechanic offered to hold it in Wayne, for a day or two more at no cost, but it will start a $95 storage fee per day. I can't get it towed to the condo lot because I won't be there for the delivery and we have two cars in our two spots anyway I just need a place for it to be parked essentially planning for until October 6 so I don't have to ask my dad to go and get it and get a ride there. Another option is asking Mike Cipolloni to go get it and store it at his mom's place 20 minutes away from Wayne, until I get back and I was gonna see him anyway the other option I have is if you put it in Mary's driveway and then I will get it and drive it to rock hall when I get back to Philadelphia area on October 6

9/20/24 12:09:03 PM EDT

As for the storage, I have a plan for that as well, and I will keep the mattress and Russian thing

9/20/24 12:10:04 PM EDT

I will also make sure the State Farm policy is intact for my drive to Rockall when I pick it up and then I will park it in rock hall until I can arrange a buyer. I haven't looked up the value yet, but it's probably around the same as the repair value, maybe less.

9/20/24 12:10:49 PM EDT

That's all I have for now. I'll check my phone later tonight to see any response from you, but I will keep you posted and just not good news overall related to the jeep unfortunately

9/20/24 12:33:49 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Bummer yeah, it cant be stored at Mary's so please make a different plan for it. Let me know your plan to empty the storage by 9/28 because I want to know when it's being accessed. I guess you'll keep the mattress and furniture piece so keep that in mind when planning to empty it because mattress is large size obviously.

9/20/24 1:05:03 PM EDT

No the jeep at Mary's or somewhere. Not storage stuff

9/23/24 2:16:41 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Thanks. Please tell him everything in unit is yours EXCEPT there are two bins and a framed diploma which I'm getting on Wednesday.

9/23/24 2:17:03 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

He can call me if he needs to because the bins aren't marked it's a large one with a green top and the bin on top are mine.

9/23/24 3:03:43 PM EDT

Ok do I have much stuff in there? Outside of the mattress and Russian thing, how much approximately if you don't mind reminding me

9/23/24 8:13:15 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

A stand up air conditioner I figured you wanted, you have some tubs and hanging clothes, motorcycle helmet and some plastic thing that maybe was for under a desk chair

9/23/24 8:16:11 PM EDT

Ok Oleg didn't get the keys yet mailed to him so he couldn't get in but is going back. Thought he had them

9/23/24 8:19:36 PM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Ok if it's after I go Wednesday then he needs to take the lock and key with him when he leaves per the moving out instructions from the storage facility

I am completely moved out of storage unit.
Please let me know by end of today when you will be moved out. And just to be on same page these are move out instructions:
1) remove everything from unit including the blue tarp because we put that down on the floor
2) remove lock and keep lock and key they do not get returned to the office

9/26/24 9:48:03 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

9/27/24 4:43:31 PM EDT

My dad will be there tomorrow morning on my behalf . He's going there with his truck and I mailed a key to the condo.

9/28/24 12:30:49 PM EDT

I'm calling the storage place today. The key I storage locker key I UPS overnighted to my dad was lost and now found by UPS and won't arrive until Sept 30th. So I will see if they can extend one month. I know this contract was your name and ends today. Do you require any updates ? Surely i want you to be removed so to not align anything to you like carrying forward your contact is absolute no.

9/28/24 5:18:57 PM EDT

I spoke with Marcy the manager at Extra Space storage. Since my Dad gets the keys in the mail on the 30th, and can meet Oleg to remove my stuff, Marcy agreed to inspect the unit on October 1st. My dad will leave the unit door open and take the lock with him per Marcy's instructions. Marcy said she would not charge us or start a new billing cycle. She said if she inspects it on the 1st and my belongings are still there she knows to call me and I would start a new 1 month lease with you off of it.

9/28/24 5:19:52 PM EDT

When she inspects on the 1st and the unit is empty, she will close down the account just the same as she would have if the stuff was gone today

9/28/24 5:20:21 PM EDT

Thanks. Are you planning to submit your tax docs they need them ASAP. If not I'm going to file separately as I don't want to miss the deadline.

10/1/24 4:02:22 PM EDT

Yes. I have a call into their office to meet when I'm in town and I'm submitting ahead of time. I will give you an update when I submit to the portal and confirm time with them

Also we have a mortgage payment due and no tenants. Our tenants moved out and the place looks great. My dad was just there.

Think how you'd like to handle dividing mortgage payments until we have a buyer. Or renter. Which I'm still a fan of marketing both. Juliana is good but wants to sell top dollar she can get bc she makes money and that's what people want but I think we are going to be paying for an empty condo for a long time and want to offload at a discount or at a minimum have tenants to offset the cost

We have until the 17th of every month with Mr cooper just fyi

10/1/24 4:03:20 PM EDT

Also have to return the security deposit to Ethan and Katie. I have that to send to them after I inspect the condo Oct 6/7th when I'm in Philly

10/2/24 10:44:56 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

Wow. You are showing your true colors is all I can say. You should use the security deposit you got from Tifton St and money you got from selling the golf cart to pay the mortgage.

Moving forward, DO NOT CONTACT ME. All communication should go through my lawyer.

10/3/24 3:25:32 PM EDT

I will not contact you, but I need to get into our shared email account. The storage place needs me to fill out a form to cut a lock that my dad left on by accident so I'm sorry for contacting you but if you could just let me know the verification code that would be nice

10/3/24 3:27:14 PM EDT

10/5/24 1:13:37 PM EDT

When I get in, I will add myself as a user. We will both have access. I won't have to text you then.

10/7/24 4:24:27 PM EDT

If you got a six digit code since your phone it is from PECO please share it with me

10/7/24 4:40:29 PM EDT

Peco tried calling you twice. Two texts were sent.

No problem at all.

I come back to this PECO need of ours at a time when you can say you're ready and available to assist

I only need help logging in.

Juliana, our realtor, is going to have an open house.

Electricity needs to be restored in general, but in time for the weekend's open house

10/7/24 4:42:11 PM EDT

To respect your wishes of not contacting you, if these requests should filter through your lawyer please state that. These are the only types of outreach you'll get on a must need basis for mutually owned things

10/8/24 8:01:53 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I don't know how to be more clear than I was last week when I said "do not contact me, all communication should go through my lawyer." You shouldn't need me for PECO to set it up in your name. And you definitely shouldn't be setting up anything in my name/with my information without my consent. Got it?

10/8/24 10:56:20 AM EDT

It was peco that was telling me I needed consent to get you out of the way.

Similar to Verizon, you needed the same response from me. You completed that task. It was completely as a result of one party taking the lead, and the other party complying to assist.

It's not logical to block these things. An open house is this weekend. Power is needed to prepare.

Fair reminder, nothing will ever be set up in your name without your consent. Was never, is never, my intent.

Do i "got it?"

Yes. "It" i do got.

Power, however, in a home with your name on it equally to mine, no not yet. I will get around the barrier of you, however, to power the home, repair the home, deal with the mortgage independently of you, per your denial to contribute, on my own, so on, and so on.

In addition, in parallel to this, we have a joint Gmail. I've asked for my access. You've denied me of that. This makes efforts more difficult.

Let the record show, and it does, and it will, these course of events

10/8/24 10:59:49 AM EDT

With the saddest of hearts, with so so much sadness, this will be my forever and final last text message to you...my love, my muse, forever, regardless, in my heart.

You will never hear from me ever again.

10/8/24 11:01:33 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I can help with PECO as you did Verizon that is fine. Do you want to call them now?

10/8/24 11:04:02 AM EDT

Provide the code when it arrives in text

10/8/24 11:04:09 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

I don't even want to get into what you've denied me access to because there are bigger things than a shared email account, Lucy being the most important to me. I'll see that the emails get forwarded to your email address.

10/8/24 11:04:22 AM EDT

Melissa (+16106135939)

If you want me to open anything I can but I'll put the packages in the condo. Thank you again for sending me all that stuff it's a huge help.

No need to open. Nothing urgent just sent to the wrong address. I will likely be back in the area this coming 1-2 weeks depends on some things but I will swing by then. Thanks for putting them in condo.

Also the post office didn't take a name for the package I realized that after I left. So it's just an address just look for the white duct tape

Sorry to text you, but I need to log into State Farm and the codes are set up to go to your phone and the shared email we have together. I appreciate you set up auto forwarding. It's a spotty feature of Gmail, it works then it doesn't, it's always been a frustration of mine with google. Anyway, it's not forwarding me the six digit code I'm requesting from State Farm. I think the feature only forwards emails that land in the primary inbox, not the boxes I had set up in our email for automated messages like this one.

Just sent two codes to your phone first one by mistake. If you see this in the next five minutes, appreciate if you could share the code.

Never mind, I was able to get State Farm to change the phone number on the account to my number but I can't change the email address if you ever have a need to get in State Farm and my phone number get a car you need just let me know but I'm good I don't think you'll ever need it again. I'm canceling State Farm before our next statement November 3 sorry again

Hi,

I wanted to share something. A big part of me wants to see you. I don't have a specific reason or intent or any list of things I want to say, or to ask of you. I wouldn't even know where to start if I was in front of you. I think I'm past that.

But my heart is feeling this. And I don't have anywhere to put it.

So, in hopes this text lands with the softness I'm writing it, I'll place it here.

Please don't feel obligated to reply. It's okay. I trust your heart is guiding you as well, and I trust you'll follow yours too
